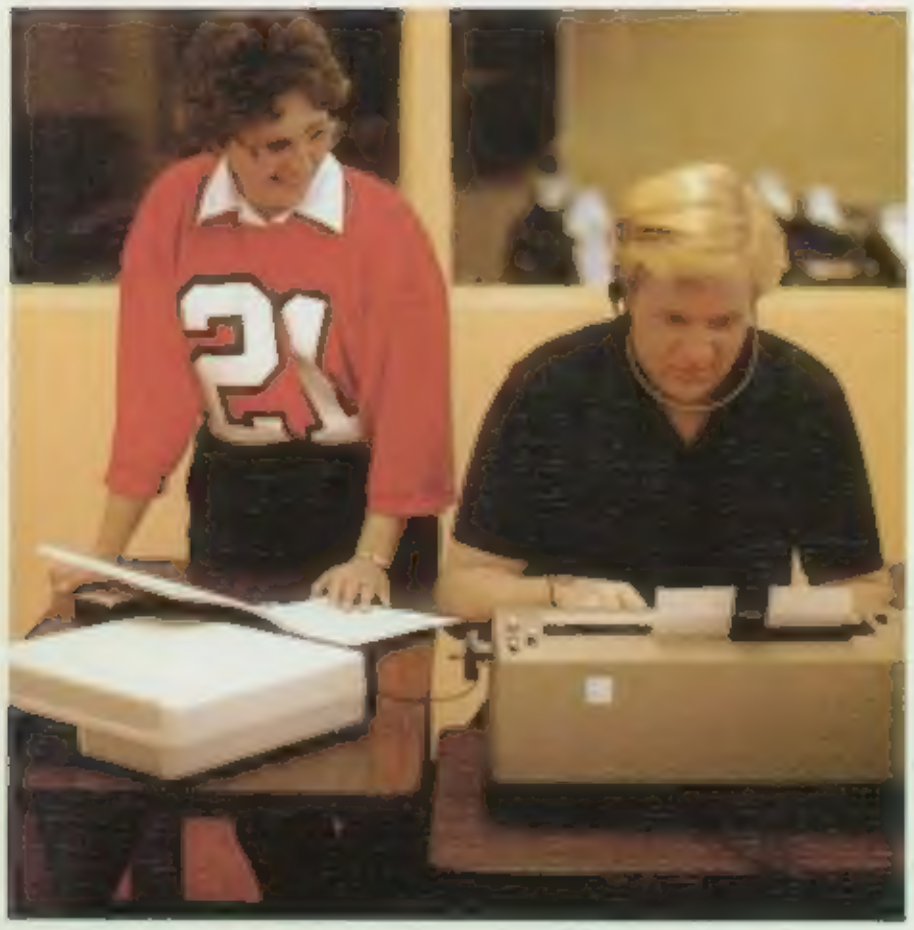
DEDICATION 1984



We, the Seniors of 1984, would like to dedicate our yearbook to a very special person, Mrs. Nancy Kocher, not only because of her work as a teacher and a friend, but also because of her outstanding work as the yearbook business manager. It is Mrs. Kocher's "special" touch that is seen so often in her work.

Thank you Mrs. Kocher, for the work, dedication, and concern that you have shown for the students. Love ya!

Wow, did you see that guy go?

Cheer 'em on, Maria

AWESOME!!!

We just love pep rallies!

Ground, sticks, ground, sticks, ground, sticks - GO!

Oh no, not another picture!

Computer Scientists hard at work!

Aren't we cute?!

Our team hard at work!

Leading the way!

Hard work pays off!

Hey, you guys!

SENIORS

LIFE'S ROAD

We learn many lessons as each day goes by

There are songs to sing and a few tears to cry.

There are blessings to count, happy memories, too

And sometimes disappointment in things that we do.

There are cups that run over and years that are lean,

With bright days and dark days and long nights between

But one choice we can make as we carry life's load

If we look toward the sun how it brightens the road!

HOMECOMING

Homecoming Court and Escorts L to R Greg Genevro and Krista Abrahamson Eddy Inzana and Trina Sarvey, Robert Grecco and Queen Merry Foradori, Bill Sabatose and Janice Pisarchick James Sleigh and Laurie Battitori

1983

Homecoming week started off on September 17 with a spirited pep rally. During this pep rally, the underclassmen varsity cheerleaders performed clever little skits to announce each name on the soon to be Homecoming Court. The students waited excitedly to hear the first name to be called ... Krista ... then Merry ... then Janice then Laurie and finally Trina! There we had it, our 1983 Homecoming Court!

The Homecoming festivities began with a fun-filled spirit week. The school pulled out all the stops as we dressed up in everything from sweatsuits to wild punk outfits. On the night of Oct. 7, the annual bonfire was held and was followed by a dance in the cafeteria

On Saturday morning, the band, cheerleaders and 5 candidates proudly marched down to the football field where our Rovers met the Clarion Bobcats. During the halftime festivities, the court received their trophies and Merry Foradori was crowned the 1983 queen

The weekend came to a beautiful close with the Homecoming Dance held in the high school cafeteria. It was a very special day for all and will linger in their memories forever. It was truly a day to remember!

BHS Workathon

Once again the Workathon for Children's Hospital was a great success and a rewarding accomplishment for the BHS students. Over 300 students worked hard at almost any type of job they could find. The final total amounted to about $8,200.

With great pride the students once again traveled to Pittsburgh to present the check on KDKA radio.

The success of the Workathon would not have been possible if it were not for the students and community pulling together. Without the help and guidance of the student council, advisor Mr. Ron Norman, another successful year would not have been obtained.

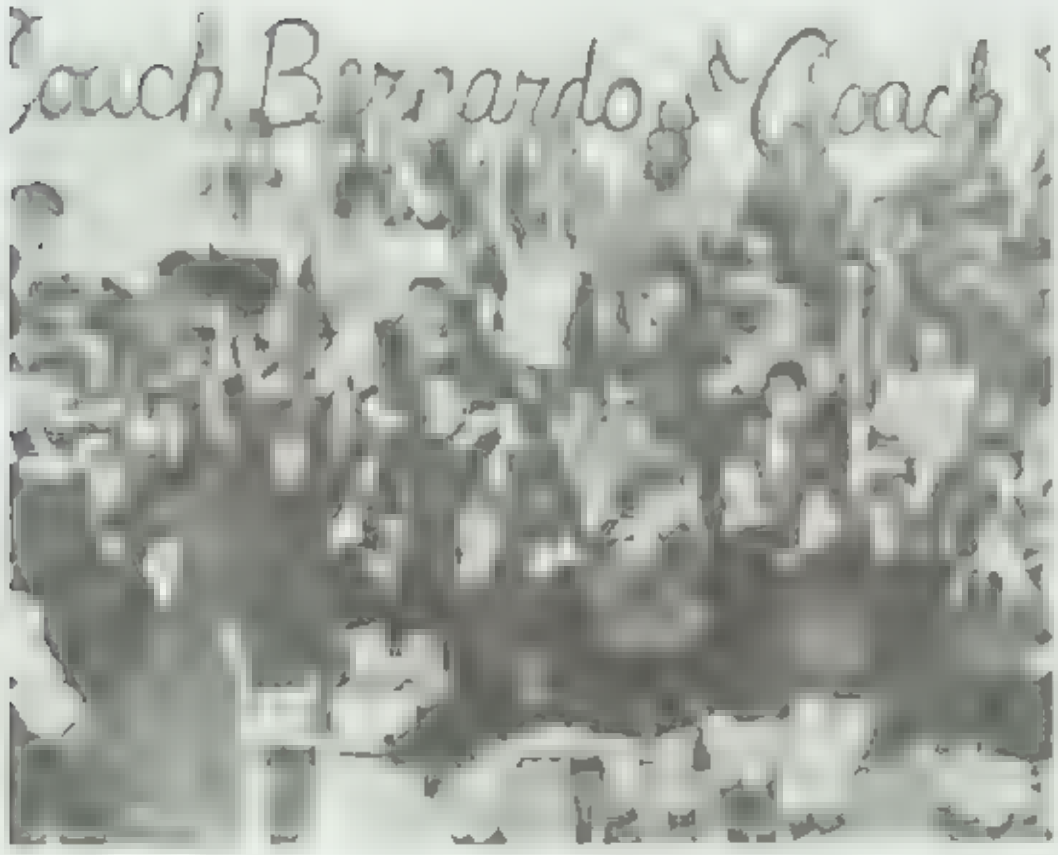
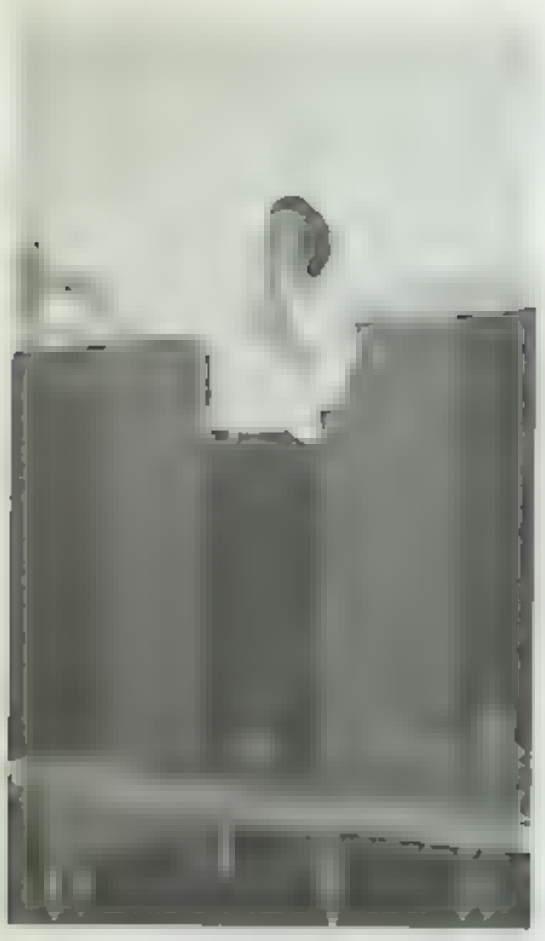
The Singh family celebrates the honor of Manbir, the youngest son, and Jasbir, the eldest son, becoming American citizens. The seventh grade held a special ceremony to honor the entire family. Congratulations!



Brockway wrestling fans rally up!

Explain this one, Mr. Sabatose.

No, Quinn! Not hunting stories again!



David Toma, a dynamic and motivating speaker on the topic of drugs and alcohol, spoke to Brockway students in September 1983. Thank you, Toma, you had a good impact on us all

We, the yearbook staff would like to thank Bernie Magrit, our Walsworth representative, for all his help and guidance, Mr. Bud Grieneisen, our local photographer, for being in the right place at the right times, Mrs. Nancy Kocher, for all her hard work in the business end, and all the people who submitted pictures. A special thanks to Mrs. Denise Carlini, our advisor, for her patience and understanding. We realize it was extremely difficult at times! We hope everyone will enjoy this yearbook as much as we enjoyed putting it together.
